I. Competition Rules & Regulations

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

- 1.1. The Odoyevsky International Organ Competition (hereafter referred to as “Competition”) aims to develop the art of organ playing and musical education in Russia, to support talented young organists, to promote international cultural cooperation, to preserve and enrich the best traditions of different organ schools, as well as to draw the attention of the wider public to classical music.
- 1.2. The Competition is organized by the Odoyevsky Cultural and Educational Organ Arts Center (Moscow) and the Gnesins Russian Academy of Music, which constitute the Organizing Committee and appoint the Jury.
- 1.3. The Jury consists of prominent organ specialists from Russia and abroad.

2. PLACE AND TIMINGS

- 2.1. The Competition is held in the Gnesins Russian Academy of Music and other suitable venues in Moscow.
- 2.2. The Competition takes place every second year during the last ten days of November.
- 2.3. Dates of the Competition events and the list of venues are announced in the year of each Competition, not later than 20 April.

3. ELIGIBILITY

- 3.1. Participants should be not younger than 17 and not older than 33 on the opening day of the Competition.
- 3.2. Winners of the First Prize of the Competition are not allowed to participate in subsequent competitions.
- 3.3. Participants’ performance skills are to be confirmed by letters of recommendation in accordance with item 4.3 of the present Rules & Regulations.
- 3.4. A maximum of 24 performers are allowed to take part in the Competition, selected after consideration of applications submitted in accordance with the present Rules & Regulations.

4. APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- 4.1. Paper copies of applications should be sent to the following address:

Odoyevsky International Organ Competition

Gnesins Russian Academy of Music

Povarskaya str., 30-36

Moscow, Russian Federation, 121069

An electronic copy should be sent by e-mail simultaneously to organ-competition@gnesin-academy.ru

- 4.2. The deadline for applications is 10 October of the year in which the Competition takes place (as confirmed by postmarks and e-mail dates).

- 4.3. Applicants should submit the following documents:

- a signed application letter in a free form addressed to the Organizing Committee of the Odoyevsky International Organ Competition, in which the applicant expresses his intention to participate in the Competition in accordance with all its rules, provides contact information including postal address, phone number and e-mail address, and (if necessary) makes requests envisaged by the items 5.6 and 8.5 of the present Rules and Regulations;
- two letters of recommendation signed by the applicant's teachers or by internationally recognized concert organists;
- a detailed programme for each round and expected performance duration of each piece;
- a copy of the applicant's identification document (passport or birth certificate);
- a curriculum vitae which may be used in publications;
- color digital photographs, image size being not less than 1748 x 2480, suitable for publications (in electronic form only);

- 4.4. Applicants are recommended also to submit the following:

- copies of documents detailing the applicant's musical education;
- copies of laureate diplomas or certificates awarded at music competitions;
- information about any organ concerts given in the course of 12 months preceding the date of the application.

- 4.5. Applications which do not contain all the documents specified in clause 4.3 of Rules & Regulations will be refused.
- 4.6. A non-refundable fee (3 000 roubles) is payable by those participants who are selected after the consideration of applications. It should be transmitted to the settlement account of the Gnesins Russian Academy of Music (see Chapter 10) in roubles. The bank transfer order should include the applicant's full name, and purpose of payment should be stated as: "Odoyevsky International Organ Competition application fee". It is allowed to make this payment in Moscow immediately before the Competition.

5. COMPETITION RULES

- 5.1. The Competition consists of four rounds in the form of open auditions and concerts.
- 5.2. A maximum of 24 participants will take part in the first round, 12 in the second round, 6 in the third round, and 3 in the Final.
- 5.3. The order in which participants perform will be decided by drawing lots before the first round, and maintained until the end of the Competition. The Jury has the right to change the order of playing in the event of the illness of a participant or because of other unforeseen circumstances.
- 5.4. All auditions are open to the public.
- 5.5. Any piece of a participant's programme may be performed from memory or with scores at his discretion.
- 5.6. At the request of a participant, included in his application, his performance may be assisted by a person appointed by the organizers of the Competition. It is also allowed to perform without an assistant, or with an assistant invited by the participant himself. In this case the assistant should not be a participant's teacher, or a contestant of the Competition.
- 5.7. Participants will be provided with rehearsal facilities and time before each round in accordance with a schedule approved by the organizers of the Competition.
- 5.8. No written or oral contacts will be permitted between participants and members of the Jury between the start of the Competition and the announcement of the results.
- 5.9. The results will be announced immediately after the conclusion of each round.

6. PROGRAMME REQUIREMENTS

- 6.1. Participants should draw up their performance programme in accordance with Competition organizers' requirements, which take account of the artistic and technical features of the organs on which the works will be performed.
- 6.2. Along with the traditional organ repertoire (J.S. Bach, C. Franck, F. Mendelssohn-Bartholdy, F. Liszt, J. Brahms), the Competition programme includes 20th century compositions, as well as a number of the most notable organ works of Russian composers.
- 6.3. Besides compulsory pieces, participants of the final round will have an opportunity to play a small concert programme created at their own discretion. The choice of pieces for the programme is to conform to Russian and international copyright legislation, which each participant has the responsibility to observe.
- 6.4. Requirements for the creation of a programme, and information about the venues and instruments to be used, can be found on the following site:
http://gnesin-academy.ru/organ_competition
- 6.5. Once submitted, no changes to the programmes will be allowed.

7. PRIZES AND AWARDS

- 7.1. Participants selected for the final (fourth) round will be prizewinners. They will be awarded the following prizes funded by charitable donations and sponsorship:

1st prize	120 000 roubles
2nd prize	60 000 roubles
3rd prize	40 000 roubles

The finalists will also receive corresponding Prizewinner Certificates.
- 7.2. Participants in the third round who are not selected for the fourth round will receive certificates and a 20 000 roubles prize.
- 7.3. The winner of the Competition will get an opportunity to make a concert tour over Russian cities as an additional reward.
- 7.4. By special decision of the Jury the winner of the Competition may be awarded a Grand Prix.
- 7.5. The Prizes will be awarded on the final day of the Competition.
- 7.6. Decisions of the Jury are final and not subject to revision.
- 7.7. By agreement with the organizers of the Competition special and additional prizes may be provided by Russian and foreign state, commercial, public and other organizations.

8. OTHER CONDITIONS

- 8.1. Documents addressed to the Organizing Committee should be written in Russian or English.
- 8.2. Submitted documents and materials will not be returned to applicants.
- 8.3. The composition of the Jury will be announced not later than 20 June of the year in which the Competition takes place. The Organizing Committee is permitted to make alterations in the composition of the Jury not later than two months before the opening of the Competition, or even later in case of unexpected circumstances.
- 8.4. Candidates will be informed whether or not their application has been successful via the e-mail address given by them, not later than 20 October of the year in which the Competition is held.
- 8.5. During the competition participants can be accommodated in the student residence of the Gnesins Russian Academy of Music, and assistance in obtaining an entry permit for the Russian Federation can be provided, if corresponding requests are made at the time of application.
